Nominations

- Nominations can be made by the author(s) of the submitted entry, editor or other employee of the publication or by the general public at large.
- Nominations must be received by April 15, 2024.
- The awards will be presented at an event held within three months of the application closing date.

Selection Process

Each qualifying entry will be considered in competition with all others by an independent panel of judges that will be appointed annually. The panel will comprise of an appropriate balance of experienced and knowledgeable professionals with expertise in either the field of journalism or investment/financial services:

- At least one judge will be fluent in French and English.
- All potential judges will be screened for any actual or perceived conflict of interest.

In evaluating the merit of an entry, judges shall consider:

- The entry's content meeting the stated purposes of the Awards;
- Professional journalistic ethics and commonly accepted standards;
- The constraint of the entry length given the complexity of the topic covered; and
- Journalists that go "above and beyond" to submit thoughtful and substantive entries that provide an original perspective on topical issues pertinent to the Canadian investing public.
